Southwell Torpedos is a constituted community group engaged in serving our community as a response to the Covid-19 crisis. All information collected will be securely held, used only in the pursuit of the group's aims and compliant with GDPR.

Privacy Policy

Southwell Torpedos will never share your information with third parties, without your consent.

This policy outlines how we collect, use and store your data.

What we collect

We will keep, for your email address, mailing address and telephone number, along with the other information you provide to us via our data collection form. By providing this information to us, you consent to us holding this information in relation to the purposes it was provided for.

What we do with your information

We may use your information to contact you about community volunteering work in the wider Southwell area, or any thing else which arises from Southwell Torpedo's activities in this field.

Disclosure of personal information

We will never sell, share or disclose your information to a third party without your written consent.

Data security

We take all reasonable steps to protect the data we hold from misuse, loss or unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.

To update or remove your data

If you would like to update your personal information or have it removed from our database, please email us at info@thetorpedos.org
